CEMETERY AND BIBLE RECORDS

compiled by

Miss Frances Adine Cook
Chairman of Genealogical Records
Mississippi Genealogical Society

Published by
Mississippi Genealogical Society
408 Dunbar Street
Jackson,Mississippi

This is the first publication of the Mississippi Genealogical Society. The Society was organized August 25, 1949, by Mrs. William G. Roberds, and its membership consists of professional genealogists who are resident citizens of Mississippi. The members are dedicated to the task of saving the old records of Mississippi and to that end the Society has compiled Volume I of Mississippi Cemetery and Bible records. More volumes will follow as material is collected and assembled.

For the most part the records in Volume I were compiled by Miss Frances Cook direct from the gravestones and the Bible records from original entries. These are primarily from Copiah County, Mississippi, and other county data will be included in subsequent volumes.

The Society is indebted to Miss Cook for her splendid work in gathering this material. Many thanks are due Mrs. Adele McKeithen Jackson for arranging and typing the records and to Miss Vivian Cook, Mrs. G. D. Brignac, Miss Mary Ellis Ainsworth and Mrs. B. C. Moody, who assisted Miss Frances Cook in her arduous task.

1390192

The use of the general highway map of Copiah County, Mississippi, has been authorized by the Mississippi State Highway Department. For this authorization, the Society is deeply grateful.

The oldest Higdon Family Cemetery is in the woods near the site of the original residence, where huge old cedars and oaks still stand. Local residents (Mr. Maples and daughter Emma) state that there were formerly a number of prominent stones in this cemetery but none could be located. Near this place is a Higdon cemetery in which there are several graves but only one with a stone marker:

John T. Higdon/ b. Aug. 8, 1824/ d. Dec. 28, 1890/ (Thought to be the son of the older Higdon buried in the cemetery mentioned above.
